We had a fabulous Spring of Festivals, with our Dancers and Drummers showcasing their talents and sharing, with entertainment skills, the beautiful art of Middle Eastern Dance and Music.

Due to numerous time crunches we were unable to get a group photo at Mayfest, but we had a great time!

Mayfest Fort Worth 2010

Congratulations to all of our performers for pulling off a good show in spite of all the parking and traffic problems that were encountered due to the terrific support Mayfest received after the huge loss last year due to being closed down at the last minute because of the swine flu epidemic - (whew, that was a long sentence)! Opa!

An email we received this year during Scarborough Faire - thanks, Stuart:

Yesterday, Sunday, May 2nd, I experienced my first venture as a "Sultan" at your afternoon show at Scarborough Faire. Though I felt completely humiliated by having to appear on stage, in all it was a FUN time and I appreciate the opportunity. The women dancers are quite beautiful and talented in what they do. Please thank them for me. (Especially the brunette - I didn't get her name) who coerced me to the stage in the first place.

I have enjoyed watching belly dancing in the past and really didn't know much about it or its' roots. I expect it is "Middle-Eastern", but I may be wrong. Nonetheless, impressive art expression which you perform quite well.

If you appear in any venues in or around the "North Dallas" area, let me know, and I'll stop by.

My very best,

*Stuart Schwartz
