March Spring Hafla - 2
February & March PART TWO:
SPECIAL PHOTO ISSUE - December Graduates, YHY and more will follow!!!

We all share in the prayers for Japan ...

We are grateful for those who are able to be there to help to find their lost families ... for the funds and food being given to feed their people ... for every type of support from the countries of the world to help them rebuild ... we pray for the end of the horror they endure!

REAL LIFE by Cindy Ryan

Jennifer Loudon, in The Woman's Comfort Book, suggests women should ask themselves the following questions regarding friendship:

- Who do I call when I'm down?
- Who energizes me?
- Who do I like to play with?
- Who would I call in a crisis?
- Who would bring me food if I was sick?
- Who would I give my house key to?

The answers you give are clues to your nurturing network.

Another set of questions:

- Who makes me feel tired?
- Who causes me to have tension in my jaw or a stomach full of flutters?
- Who do I find myself breathing shallowly around?

The answers are clues to your toxic relationships.

The rest is simple. Spend more time with the life-givers and less time with the energy-drainers.

Today, I celebrate energy-giving friendships among women ... where we can talk for hours and never run out of things to say; where we can ask each other, "do you think it's menopause or am I just always this snappish?"; where we can commiserate about men and children and what's wrong with society; where we can trust our tears, our laughter and our occasional inappropriate words are going to be heard in the spirit intended; where we are given the "just-right gifts" that our friend just knew we needed; where we can compare parenting techniques, recipes, work and body issues - and wonder of wonders, live longer and stronger because of it.

Gale Berkowitz writes, "Scientists now suspect that hanging out with our female friends can actually counteract the kind of stomach-quivering stress most of us experience on a daily basis".

So there it is - scientific proof that women need women and that spending time together is good for us.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Congratulations to Jennifer Brantley on being invited to join Phi Theta Kappa (honor society) because of her 4.0!

Congratulations to Kristi Kolpanen for her acceptance into the Evening MBA program at TCU for Fall 2011!

Congratulations to Gloria & Michael Hanchette's granddaughter Jennifer who is first in the nation in weapons for ages 8-9 in USA TaeKwonDo. Her brother and their grandson, Nicholas is a silver medalist in sparring and in weapons for ages 10-11. They will be competing in a state tournament March 26, 2011 at the Gaylord Texas in Grapevine.

Congratulations to Teresa Fike whose daughter had a baby girl on March 2 - Courtney Nasya Little - 6 lb., 12 oz. 20".

Congratulations to Isis' grandson, and Tara's son, Alexander Bailey, for being inducted into Eagle Scouts on July 10th. For his community service project, he built a fence for North Side Baptist Church. His Eagle Scout Ceremony is scheduled for April 2. His sister, Katie Bailey, is on a competition dance team "Beyond Belief". Her team has taken top honors every time they've performed. Alex will be graduating from High School on May 27th.

Congratulations to The Wings of Isis on their terrific performances at Belly Dancer of the Universe in Long Beach!

Congratulations to Sarah Brantley Woodworth and husband on the birth of their son, Jacob Gideon Woodworth, born March 15, 7lbs, 6 oz., 20.5 in.

Nicholas Hanchette

Congratulations to Michael Bakowski who received the Boy Scouts of America highest rank, Eagle Scout, on January 29, 2011. The Court of Honor was a dinner catered by El Fenix. The event was held at the Stacy's Furniture Community Room with 125 guests in attendance. To earn the Eagle Scout rank, each scout must lead in a community service project. Michael built an outdoor, 2 stall shower at Camp Burnett in Southlake. The project was quite extensive and resulted in over 100 hours of work. Pam, Joe and Elizabeth Bakowski are very proud of Michael! The cake was baked by Pam!
